DISCIPLINE CHAIN

Improper behaviour on behalf of the child. → Reprimand/Warning by the teacher. → Improvement of behaviour.

The improper behaviour continues.

The teacher discusses the problem with the head teacher and follows his/her suggestions. The parents are informed by the teacher and the head teacher. Cooperation amongst the school and the parents to achieve better results. → Improvement of behaviour.

The improper behaviour continues.

More strict measures are employed, in consultation with the head teacher e.g.

- ❑ deprivation of break time
- ❑ temporary expulsion from class.

→ The improper behaviour continues.

Improvement of behaviour.

The school committee is informed.

The parents are informed again and they are asked to discuss the matter with the teacher and the head teacher.

The improper behaviour continues or worsens.

The head teacher and the school committee discuss the possibility of the child's expulsion from school. The decision is final.